

Value Statement/ Equal Opportunities

“The school makes learning exciting and memorable through the different subject areas and the links between them. It promotes a good understanding of diversity through community projects and global issues”

Ofsted October 2012

Value Statement

Misterton Primary School is committed to lifelong learning where every individual is valued, nurtured and respected. The school is an exciting, learning community with the emphasis on high quality teaching in all areas. Staff work hard to create a positive and caring environment where diversity, respect and tolerance are valued.

We believe that all pupils are individuals with their own special qualities, skills and interests, which need to be encouraged. We put great emphasis on the development of confidence, self-esteem, independence, kindness and courtesy.

Misterton Primary School is a secure and happy place. Pupils are supported and helped to develop academically, socially, physically and emotionally.

Equal Opportunities

The school is totally committed to equality of opportunity for all its pupils, irrespective of gender, disability and ethnic or religious background. We oppose any form of racism.

The school is sensitive to the varying backgrounds of its pupils and welcomes differing cultures, religions and languages for the enrichment of all. Every member of the school community seeks to promote personal qualities of responsibility, self-discipline, initiative, independence and endeavour.
